SERMONS BY A. B. SIMPSON AS FOUND IN THE PERIODICALS

INTRODUCTION

Simpson published his first periodical, THE GOSPEL IN ALL LANDS, 1880 - 1881, when pastor of the 13th Street Presbyterian Church of New York City. Editorials and articles from his pen appear regularly in this missionary publication but not sermons.

When he resigned his Presbyterian pastorate to begin an independent evangelistic ministry in the city, he began a second periodical, THE WORD, THE WORK AND THE WORLD. It has continued until today in the current ALLIANCE WITNESS. The first issue was February 1882. It was a monthly publication as was its predecessor. Only a few sermons were published in it when a monthly, 1882 - 1889. But he did publish sermons in booklets entitled Tabernacle Sermons.* In mid - 1889 the periodical became a weekly and a Sunday sermon or convention sermon was printed nearly every week.

Later, 1902 - 1907, Simpson added another periodical, LIVING TRUTHS. He never identified himself in this periodical, but there are long articles in it by the Editor. They are listed in Articles by A. B. Simpson.

All of these periodicals have been carefully examined, the sermons listed by year, month and page. Volume numbers were irregular for bibliographical purposes. All of the sermons have been at least scanned and notes added to the title in this list when deemed useful.

* The booklets became books, - eleven of them. The contents of these eleven books you will find in The Writings of A.B.Simpson, Part II Alphabetical.

Several delightful tasks remain for those interested in the preaching and views of Dr. Simpson, not the least of which is the analysis and publication of the many sermons that never felt printer's ink except in the periodicals.

Note¹

As seen in the preceding pages, Dr. Simpson only published a few of his sermons in his periodical.
(a monthly publication then and through June 1889).

In 1886 he began to publish separately what he entitled, TABERNACLE SERMONS. He printed a Sunday sermon in small booklet form, about 7x5 inches in size, bound them together each month and sent them to subscribers. When he completed a particular series of sermons, he bound the monthly publications into a single volume. Thus from 1886 through mid 1889 Simpson published eleven books in the general category of TABERNACLE SERMONS. They are listed below by Roman numerals I, II, etc.*

When the periodical became a "weekly" in August 1889, Simpson ended the separate weekly and monthly publications of sermons and published one each week in the magazines. These, too, were collected by subject or theme and published in books. Thus Simpson published some 67 books of sermons.
