Dear Church Treasurer:

You have a very important, sometimes difficult, and always busy role serving the Lord and your church family. I trust you sense God's blessing and enabling.

One aspect of your work is managing cash and investments. As part of this stewardship role, placing your funds in secure places and earning the best possible return are very important. The Alliance Development Fund (ADF) would be pleased to assist you with these responsibilities, and provide the added benefit of helping to build churches where lives are transformed.

ADF is a great place for church savings and investments that you don't need right away (such as operating reserve funds, building funds, and restricted gifts). The funds can be placed for a variety of time periods with commensurate rates of interest from our popular Church Agreement (savings) account currently paying 2.5 percent to investment certificate accounts ranging from 3.5 percent to 4.10 percent for six-month to five-year terms.

Your pastor(s) and congregation could also benefit from our saving, investment, and retirement products and we'd be pleased to discuss options with you and your congregation.

At ADF, your investments along with thousands of others provide a pool of funds made available for Alliance ministry loans. Through ADF, ministries receive funds for purchasing strategic properties, and you as an investor, receive not only a secure investment with a very competitive rate, but the satisfaction of knowing that your church's funds are helping change lives.

In addition to the above, you will:

- Have the convenience of 24/7 access to your account through ADF Online, our free, internet banking system.
- Be able to choose from a variety of savings and investment options to meet your needs.
- Receive regular updates of how your investments are changing lives as well as other timely and useful information.
- Enjoy knowledgeable service provided in a Christian, caring way.

If you are already an investor, please be assured of our unwavering commitment to keeping ADF strong and to safeguarding your investments. Thank you for your continued confidence and your ongoing support for seeing churches built, lives transformed, and the Kingdom advanced. Your prayers are also very much appreciated.
