SERMONS BY A. B. SIMPSON AS FOUND IN THE PERIODICALS

INTRODUCTION

Simpson published his first periodical, THE GOSPEL IN ALL LANDS, 1880 - 1881, when pastor of the 13th Street Presbyterian Church of New York City. Editorials and articles from his pen appear regularly in this missionary publication but not sermons.

When he resigned his Presbyterian pastorate to begin an independent evangelistic ministry in the city, he began a second periodical, THE WORD, THE WORK AND THE WORLD. It has continued until today in the current ALLIANCE WITNESS. The first issue was February 1882. It was a monthly publication as was its predecessor. Only a few sermons were published in it when a monthly, 1882 - 1889. But he did publish sermons in booklets entitled Tabernacle Sermons.* In mid - 1889 the periodical became a weekly and a Sunday sermon or convention sermon was printed nearly every week.

Later, 1902 - 1907, Simpson added another periodical, LIVING TRUTHS. He never identified himself in this periodical, but there are long articles in it by the Editor. They are listed in Articles by A. B. Simpson.

All of these periodicals have been carefully examined, the sermons listed by year, month and page. Volume numbers were irregular for bibliographical purposes. All of the sermons have been at least scanned and notes added to the title in this list when deemed useful.

Several delightful tasks remain for those interested in the preaching and views of Dr. Simpson, not the least of which is the analysis and publication of the many sermons that never felt printer's ink except in the periodicals.
